

Yates County Capital Resource Corporation

2021 Operations and Accomplishments Report

The Yates County Capital Resource Corporation was created in 2010 and had their first meeting in February of 2010. The Corporation created By-Laws; Investment Policy; Procurement Policy; Code of Ethics; Compensation Policy; Retaliatory Action Policy; Policy for Travel for Agency Directors; Real Property Acquisition Policy; Property Disposition Policy; and Defense and Indemnification Policy in accordance with the Public Authorities Accountability Act.

In 2021, the Yates County Capital Resource Corporation managed two current loans to the Finger Lakes Museum.

In 2021, Keuka College paid off their bond.

In 2021, all Corporation policies were annually approved.

(2021)